

Music Planning Guide

Cycle A

ASH WEDNESDAY TO FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD

Please check ORDO for Sunday dates; please check your music resource for song numbers.

This planning guide is for the season of Lent, Triduum and Easter. We continue in Cycle A with the Gospel of Matthew (also hearing quite a bit from John during the Easter season), and then hear from John in the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent. The focus of the gospel readings are:

1 st Sunday:	The temptation of Jesus in the desert
2 nd Sunday:	The transfiguration of Jesus
3 rd Sunday:	The woman at the well
4 th Sunday:	The man born blind
5 th Sunday:	The raising of Lazarus
Passion Sunday:	Matthew's account of the passion and death of Jesus

Remember that the music and the liturgical environment should be simple during the sacred and solemn season of lent. You may want to consider a common entrance song, such as James Chepponis's "The Time of Fulfillment," published by GIA (G-3906). It has a simple refrain for the assembly, and verses to fit each Sunday of lent for all three cycles of readings. It also includes a Kyrie for use as the penitential rite. The music for the Easter season should be joyous and uplifting!

HOLY SATURDAY, THE GREAT VIGIL

The primary focus of this liturgy is two-fold: the story of our salvation through the readings, and the initiation sacraments. The musical focus is on the psalmody following the readings, and the music to accompany the initiation rites for those entering the church. Psalms for the readings are as follows:

Reading 1: Genesis 1:1-2:2

Psalm Response: Psalm 104 or Psalm 33

Reading 2: Genesis 22:1-18

Psalm Response: Psalm 16 "You are my inheritance, O Lord."

Reading 3: Exodus 14:15-15:1

Psalm Response: Exodus 15 "Let us sing to the Lord..."

Reading 4: Isaiah 54:5-14

Psalm Response: Ps 30 "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."

Reading 5: Isaiah 55:1-11

Psalm Response: Isaiah 12 "You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation."

Reading 6: Baruch 3:9-15, 32-4:4

Psalm Response: Psalm 19 "Lord, you have the words of everlasting life."

Reading 7: Ezekiel 36:16-28

Psalm Response: Psalm 42 or Psalm 51

Music for the initiation rites can be found in several collections, including David Haas' "Who Calls You By Name" volumes 1 and 2. Music for the rest of the liturgy can be found in the next section for Easter Sunday.

John

Psalm of the day: Psalm 104

Music for the liturgy:

Sequence

As is the case with the “Victimae Paschali” at Easter, the Pentecost sequence “Veni, Sancte Spiritus” is a required part of the Pentecost liturgy. It is designed to be a hymn that stands on its own, but it could certainly be sung as the accompaniment to a procession with the Gospel Book (and incense) that moves through the congregation to the place where the word will be proclaimed, if the space permits such movement.
